

OTTAWA INDIGENOUS HOUSING AND HOMELESSNESS SUPPORT MAPPING

In 2022, the Alliance to End Homelessness Ottawa distributed a survey to Indigenous and non-Indigenous service providers in Ottawa housing and homelessness sector. A second survey was done with the Alliance and the Ottawa Aboriginal Coalition in 2023. This infographic provides an overview of some of the results of the second survey.

ORGANIZATIONS AND COMMUNITY MEMBERS: DEMOGRAPHICS

29 Housing Service/Support Organizations Responded

- ↳ 27 Were Non-Indigenous
- ↳ 2 Were Indigenous

Non-Indigenous housing organizations served up to 400 Indigenous community members in 2022.

Inuit were 2x more likely to access Indigenous housing services than non-Indigenous housing services

400

Indigenous housing supports are urgently and consistently needed year-round

68%
Ask People to Self-Identify

59%
Track Gender

OTTAWA
ONTARIO, CANADA

OTTAWA INDIGENOUS HOUSING AND HOMELESSNESS SUPPORT MAPPING

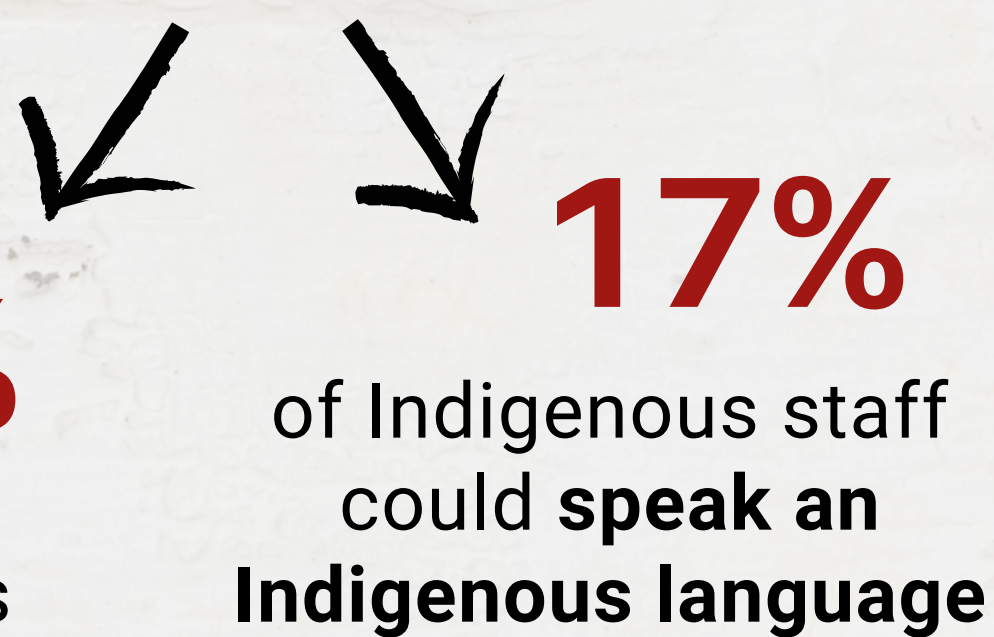

PROGRAMMING AND STAFF

NON-INDIGENOUS SERVICE PROVIDERS

Indigenous Staff

1%-5%
of their staff are Indigenous

Non-Indigenous organizations provided the following for their staff;

Trauma Informed Supports (Indigenous Staff)

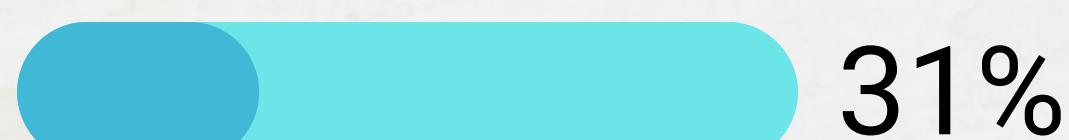

Cultural Safety Training (All Staff)

"We would rely on Minwaashin Lodge if we needed more trauma supports for Indigenous staff; We have done so before."

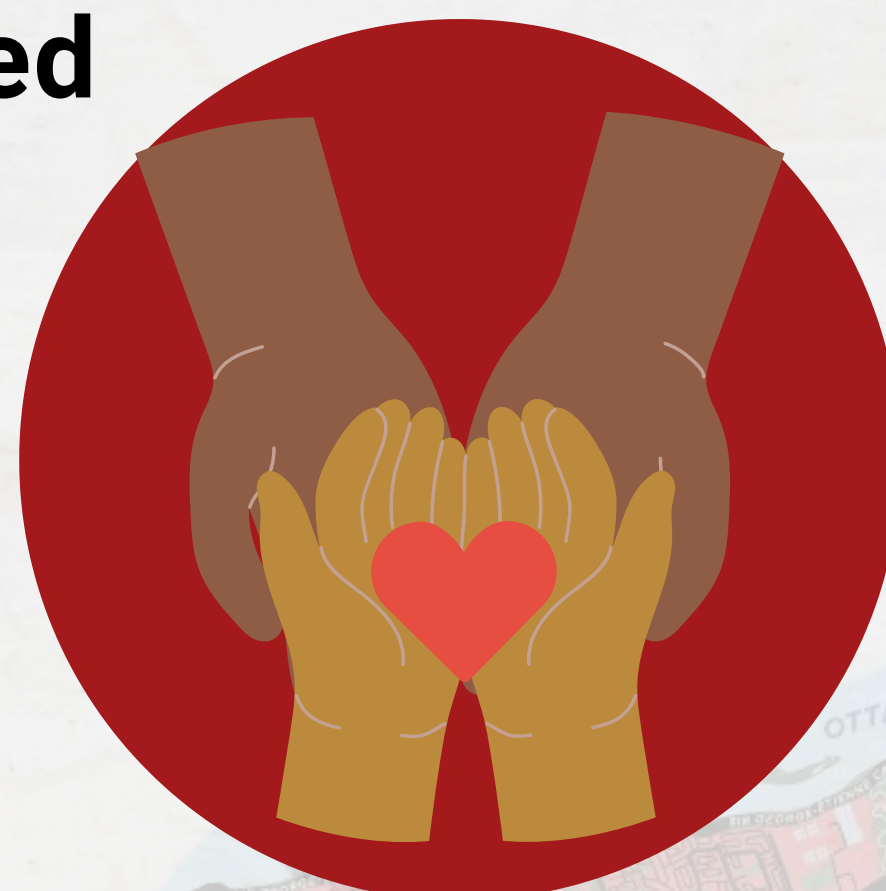

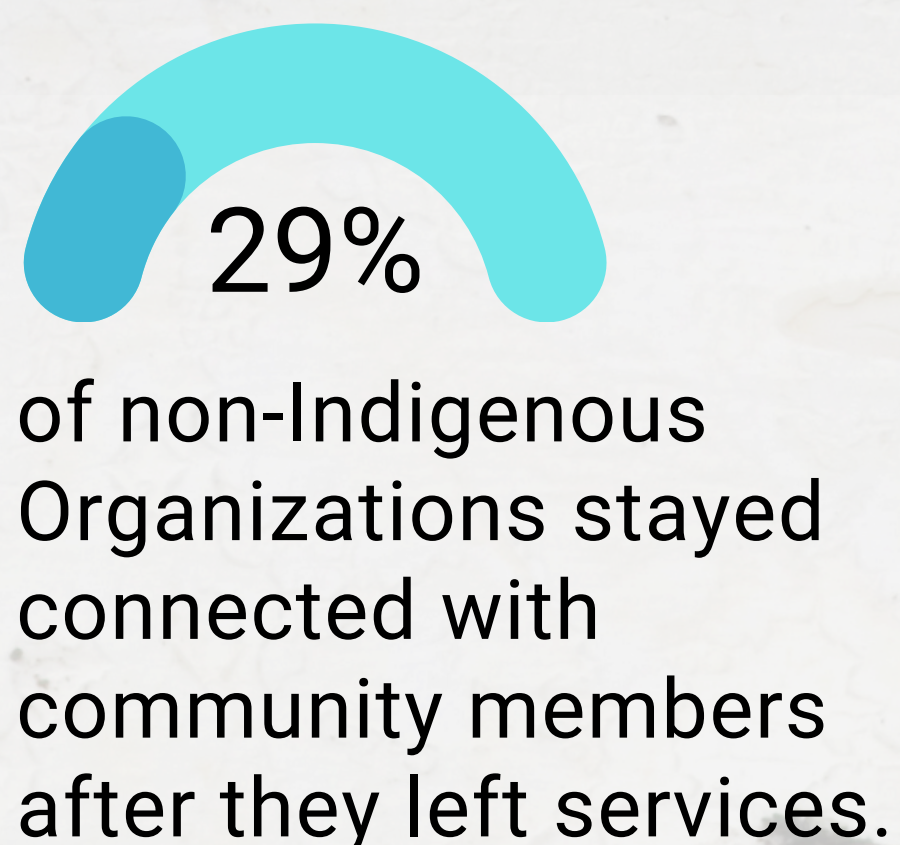

Cultural Programming

of non-Indigenous organizations offered cultural programming.

Of these cultural programs;
62% are Indigenous People Focused
37% are Inuit Focused
25% are First Nation Focused
12% are Métis Focused

Staying Connected

Reconciliation Plan

22%

of non-Indigenous organizations had a reconciliation plan

OTTAWA INDIGENOUS HOUSING AND HOMELESSNESS SUPPORT MAPPING

REFERRALS

Indigenous and Non-Indigenous organizations refer community members to one another

Non-Indigenous organizations will refer Indigenous clients to Indigenous organizations for specialized cultural supports

Indigenous organizations will refer to non-Indigenous organizations for specialized housing supports.

25%
of Organizations Will Refer to Indigenous Home Communities

Non-Indigenous service providers will refer to Indigenous Organizations for the following;

The top 3 Indigenous organizations community members were referred to by non-Indigenous organizations

Community Members from OAC's Indigenous Perspectives on Homelessness Project